

CESTAT BAR CELEBRATES NEW YEAR PARTY

AIT News Network

NEW DELHI. Bar Association, CESTAT, New Delhi, celebrated New Year Party in the Bar Room on 1st January in a get together which was attended by large gathering of Members of the Bar.

Those present on the occasion included SV Singh Chief Departmental Representative with his entire team of DRs.

AK Raha Ex-Member of CBEC and Senior Executive Member of Bar, wished Happy New Year to the gathering on behalf of the Bar Association. Commenting on transfer of cases from Delhi Bench to Chandigarh and Allahabad Benches and reduction in number of Appeals with Members of Bar; he asked the Members to remain happy under all circumstances.

On sidelines of the New Year Party; some members of Bar demanded Electronic filing of Appeals by E-mail and communication of hearing notices and orders by E-mail to the lawyers directly by the Registry as there is unreasonable delay in communications. Suggestion of hearing by Video Conferencing was also mooted to avoid travelling to outside Benches.

The Cake Cutting Ceremony was performed by Shri R.K. Jain, President of the Bar Association and thereafter high tea was served with lavish spread of snacks.
